

PARKLANE CAPITAL

We are an independent, partner-run M&A and corporate finance advisory company focusing on the internet, media and technology industries. We advise national and international founders, investors and strategists on acquisitions and disposals, as well as on the financing of growth companies. To strengthen our team in our office at Jungfernstieg in Hamburg, we are to hire a

M&A Associate (m/f/d)

At Parklane Capital you will be immediately involved in exciting projects, building a national and international network. In direct cooperation with our partners and the management level of our clients, you will work independently on challenging and complex tasks.

This is what we offer:

- Exciting M&A projects ranging up to a transaction volume of EUR 250M. Strong deal flow with plenty of opportunities for robust and meaningful career development
- Direct communication with and exposure to founders, shareholders and managers of our clients
- Young, dynamic team offering a combination of best-in-class professionalism paired with start-up spirit and open communication culture
- Work in small teams in direct cooperation with our partners
- Insight into all M&A projects
- Great office in the heart of Hamburg with a view of the Alster
- Modern working environment with home office possibility
- Attractive, performance-oriented remuneration package with fixed and performance-related components

Challenges that let you grow:

- Strong responsibility for driving the national and international M&A processes supported by analysts, guided by partners and vice presidents
- Contact person for client and investor communication
- Creating and structuring pitches, investment teaser and information memoranda
- Due diligence management on sell-side and buy-side projects (e.g. set-up virtual data rooms, responsible contact person for Q&A process)
- Creation and calculation of company valuations
- Production of business, transaction and company analyses as well as business profiles
- Building and evaluating financial models
- Coaching and mentoring of our analysts in first and second year

Skills that convince:

- 2-4 years of relevant professional experience in transaction services, private equity / venture capital, management consulting or business/corporate development
- University degree with excellent academic performance (BSc / MSc in economics or similar)
- Strong analytical and conceptual skills
- Strong interest in digital economy and understanding of relevant business and financial models
- High degree of initiative, commitment, and motivation
- Business fluent in German and English
- Highly confident use of MS Office (especially Powerpoint and Excel)
- Team player with high contact and communication skills
